

Harding University
Scholar Works at Harding

John Allen Chalk: Personal Correspondence

John Allen Chalk

11-22-1965

To: Susan Mangrum

John Allen Chalk

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarworks.harding.edu/hst-chalk-personal>

Recommended Citation

Chalk, J. A. (1965). To: Susan Mangrum. Retrieved from <https://scholarworks.harding.edu/hst-chalk-personal/5845>

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the John Allen Chalk at Scholar Works at Harding. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Allen Chalk: Personal Correspondence by an authorized administrator of Scholar Works at Harding. For more information, please contact scholarworks@harding.edu.

HARDING UNIVERSITY

November 22, 1965

C
O
P
Y

Miss Susan Mangum
Apartment 6
1016 Peabody
Memphis, Tennessee

Dear Susan:

With great reluctance and much doubt about the few good things I did say, I forwarded my recommendations for you to ACC. Of course, my official "weight," being 175 pounds, will offset the other unfavorable reports they get of you, and I am sure you will be allowed to enter the winter semester.

I saw Twila and her roommate, Karen Davis, on our recent trip to Abilene. As a result of our visit and their concern, they went out the next day following my sermon at the Highland Church and 22 of them set up 26 cottage meetings in 30 minutes. Twila and Karen are teaching three of these a week, one of which is in the home of a maintenance man for the Baptist University in Abilene. I don't know how you can wait until January to be with them and to be a part of the great things they are doing.

I am sorry you couldn't make it to Henderson, but Jerry filled me in on all of your past few weeks. This obviously means that Jerry has some kind of special interest that I haven't been able to figure out yet. Keep in touch and excuse this dictated letter.

Brotherly,

John Allen Chalk

JAC:lc